

FRANCIS G. LUKE FORGERY CASE.

Preliminary Hearing Commences
Before C. M. Nielson.

COUNSEL WAXES FACETIOUS

Story of the Alleged Bogus Summons
That Brought Famous Collector of Bad Debts Into Court.

The preliminary hearing of Francis G. Luke, of the Merchants' Protective association, on the charge of forgery, was begun before Justice C. M. Nielson in Judge Diehl's courtroom this morning at 10:15. The case is an important one and involves numerous intricate points and will likely occupy a goodly portion of next Monday, before the evidence is all in, unless, of course, it is terminated suddenly by some action of counsel for the state or the defense.

The charge against Luke is that on the 17th day of September, 1901, he issued a bogus summons to G. W. Palmer to defend an action brought against him by J. D. Wood, in Justice Lochrie's court to collect the sum of $1.63, and that then and there, Luke is alleged to have forged the name of Peter Lochrie to said summons and mailed the same to Palmer.

It is further alleged that at the time of the issuance of the summons, no complaint had been filed in Justice Lochrie's court.

Upon receipt of the papers, Palmer at once communicated with Attorney J. W. Stringfellow, and retained him to defend the supposed forgery. A careful search for the documents, they could not be found, and Attorney Stringfellow suspected that all was not as it should be. In company with Justice Lochrie, he called on Luke at his office and demanded to see the papers, but Luke said they had not yet been returned by the officer. Stringfellow called his attention to the fact that the summons had been sent through the mail, and that no officer had them. At this Luke became angry and heated words followed. He then proceeded to interview the county attorney and laid the whole case before him. A complaint was then drawn up charging Luke with forgery, signed by Attorney Stringfellow and setting forth the allegations above stated.

The complaint was filed before Judge Diehl and Luke was placed under arrest and admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000.

Luke felt that Judge Diehl was prejudiced and the case was given to Justice Dana T. Smith, and later transferred to Justice Nielson's court.

The prosecution is being conducted by County Attorney Christensen, and Assistant County Attorney Ritter, who is represented by Attorney Hoppaugh.

PALMER TESTIFIES.
G. W. Palmer was the first witness called this morning, and answering Attorney Ritter said that he received a letter and summons from Francis G. Luke, on or about the 15th of September, that it purported to be a summons for him to appear and defend an action against him.

Mr. Palmer said that he retained Attorney Stringfellow to defend him, and that he was to pay the lawyer $10 for his services. On cross examination, he said he did not remember that anything was said about a retainer, except that he was to pay counsel the amount agreed upon. The amount was suggested, or fixed by the attorney, and he said he was a member of the Salt Lake bar, and had been admitted to practice. He said after being retained by Palmer, he went to Justice Lochrie's office to look up the original summons, but that after a long and careful search the document was not forthcoming, and that Justice Lochrie had recommended to him that he should produce the document. Then in company with the justice he went to Luke's office and demanded to see the summons. Luke said the officer had not returned it.

SLIGHT DISCREPANCY.
"Then I said," continued the witness, "the summons was sent through the mail and no officer has had it." At this he said, Luke became very angry and said, "It was sent through the mail. It is not in the hands of an officer and must be in this office." But the defendant did not make any effort to produce the desired paper and witness told him if he did not produce the summons at once he would make him do so. The part in relation to witness's interview with Justice Lochrie was examined.

Justice Lochrie was called and his testimony was listened to with great interest by every person in the courtroom, and particularly by the defendant, Francis G. Luke.

Mr. Ritter asked a few questions of no great import, and then, suddenly, he thrusting a paper before the justice asked him if he had ever seen it before.

ON HIS DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Mr. James Riley, When Stricken with Grip, Took Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, Which Cured Him Years Before—It Cured the Grip Speedily.

Camden, N. J., April 10, 1901.
Gentlemen—Some years ago I used your Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for nervous dyspepsia with very beneficial results. It cured me completely and toned up my system. I gained forty pounds in a very short time, and felt vigorous and hearty.

Last winter I was taken with grip in its severest form. I took Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which my physician said was the only remedy to use to regain my strength, began to mend at once, and in a few days health and strength were fully recovered. Words fail me in which to express my gratitude for this sterling remedy.

I want to say to you that I shall be glad to tell those who are suffering from any disease or weakness what your medicine has done for me. My wife has taken your medicine for dyspepsia with the best of results. Yours truly, JAMES RILEY.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, Malaria, Fevers, Chills and Dyspepsia of whatever form quickly cured by taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. A teaspoonful in a glass of water three times a day aids digestion, stimulates the blood, tones up the heart and builds nervous energy. It is food for the body and brain; it keeps the young strong. There is none "just as good" as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It has prolonged the lives of thousands who have used it as the doctors direct. It will save yours if you will try it. It is absolutely pure and contains no fuel oil. It is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. All druggists and grocers.

MR. THOMASON'S TROUBLES.
When I came home yesterday the maid met me at the door.
"Mr. Thomason," she said, "some one with a bill was here yesterday."
I glanced in the parlor and saw that the room was full of neighbors.
"Some one with a bill?" I queried.
"Was it the lawyer?"
"No," answered Marie, with a smile.
"It was the stock."
I have since heard that some people say that the dialogue between the maid and myself was arranged beforehand, so as to give out the impression in the neighborhood that I was a bit, but that's a lie—Indianapolis Sun.

Dyspepsia

What's the use of a good cook if there's a bad stomach,—a stomach too weak properly to digest what is taken into it?

The owner of such a stomach experiences distress after eating, nausea between meals, and is troubled with belching and fits of nervous headache—he's dyspeptic and miserable.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia and have suffered almost everything. I have tried many different remedies, but could get no relief until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. After the use of this medicine I could eat without distress, and today I am as well as ever, but I always keep Hood's Sarsaparilla on hand." Mrs. J. A. CROWLEY, Canajoharie, N. Y.

"My stomach was weak. Reading how much Hood's Sarsaparilla had done other people, I was encouraged to try it. My stomach soon grew stronger and now I can eat almost anything. My husband and I take Hood's for our blood in spring with good results." Mrs. A. J. GREELY, East North Yarmouth, Me.
